Eligibility Questions Answered?

Received by 5pm, December 15th? _____

Will payment be automatically applied to my Alaska Waste account or will the Borough mail me a check?

Eligible applicants will receive an automatic credit applied to their account to cover actual fees for solid waste services.

Can a utility relief be applied to a closed account?

Per federal guidelines, under no circumstances can a utility relief be applied to a closed account.

What constitutes economic hardship or financial impact due to COVID-19?

The economic impact of the pandemic has been wide-reaching and is unique to each person and business. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- A household where a member(s) has lost a job, has had hours cut back, has not been able to work for any COVID-19 reason, or has not been able to find work due to the impact of COVID-19 closures on the economy.
- A household that has incurred personal expense to ensure safety of themselves and family members.
- Households who have incurred COVID-19 related increased expenses relating to health/mental health care during the pandemic.
- Costs relating to meeting quarantine requirements.
- Costs relating to falling ill with COVID-19.
- A family that has incurred costs relating to ensuring children are able to attend school remotely.
- A business who was forced to shut down due to state mandates.
- A business who feels it is unsafe to operate at the same capacity as before.
- A business which is incurring additional expense due to cleaning or the need to purchase protective equipment.
